I am sad to hear of the passing of my stepmother Roseann. I'm also sad our relationship was so distant throughout my adult life. I will always count Roseann as one of God's blessings. In my childhood, Roseann was there for me in my greatest hour of need. She soothed the greatest pain a child can know - the loss of a loving mother. Then she became my mother and has never lost that place in my heart. Farewell and Godspeed Roseann. Your wonderfully artistic soul will be missed.

I will remember Rose Ann always as a beloved teacher and friend who shared her craft generously with many of us at the Daytona Art League. A devoted group of us painted together with Rose Ann for many years - including Jane Rockhold, Sue Bottaro, Marion Adler, Leona Haas and myself, Kathy Bloem Tuttle. Her presence is sorely missed - her encouragement and inspiration enriched our lives. Thank you, Rose Ann/
