“ My heart goes out to everyone of his family members and friends. Some people may know or not but he was one of the most beautiful people to come into my life. I knew him since 5th grade and had a crush on him all year a nod the we dated on and off from 6th grade through high school. He was my first love crush ect. The memories I have are profound but will keep this short. I pray for everyone of you who was touched by the beautiful person he was. I know yall will miss him immensely as while I. Sending all my prayers and condolences to yall
