

Angelia Estelle Lytle

November 21, 1968 - January 22, 2020

Angelia Estelle Lytle 51, of Havana passed away at her home on Wednesday Jan. 22nd, following a tough battle against cancer. Angie was born to Robert Harry Lytle, Jr. and Onyx Patricia White on November 31, 1968 in Sarasota, Florida. She moved to this area over 25 years ago and raised her boys as a single mom.

When she was diagnosed with cancer in November, her son Dustin left his home in South Florida to move in with his mother and provide her with the care she needed. When the doctor told her she should spend a few days in the hospital, she told Dustin to take her home and he did. When the doctor said she needed to receive IV fluids to overcome dehydration, she told Dustin to take her to the Sonic, and he did.

She put up a good hard fight, right to the end. She faced her battle with courage, grace, and in complete control of making sure she did it her way. She insisted that she would live out her life at her own home, and she did just that. Her sons did everything they could to meet her needs and keep her comfortable right up to her peaceful passing early Wednesday morning.

Angie loved nothing more in life than her two wonderful, loving and caring sons and they cannot imagine life without her. There were other things she loved She loved yard sales. She loved to fish. She loved antiques and going "antiquing." Animals - she loved all of them, but especially her dogs. And she loved her "little piece of heaven here on earth" - the 5 acres of property she lived on in Havana, Florida.

Angie is survived by and already terribly missed by her two sons, Dustin Lewis Dudash and his fiancé Nadine Neal, and Garrett Dudash and his fiancé Candice Byrom; her two brothers Robert Lytle and his wife Melissa, and Roland Lytle; many nieces and nephews; her dearest and best friend Teresa Whalen, who was almost like a sister to her and Teresa's children who thought of Angie as their aunt; along with a host of other very special friends.

The family is being assisted by Skip Young and cared for by Jackie Fulford at Young Fulford Funeral Home and Crematory.

“ Angie was friends with my daughter Margo for years. I truly loved her as another daughter. My heart is with everyone who will grieve her passing, and especially with her beloved sons. She loved you to the moon and back.
"As we wave farewell from our shore, your shadow grows fainter.
But on the other side, there will be shouts of joy from those who are watching for your approach."
