“ My Aunt Sue ... she was ALWAYS there for me no matter what. From childhood she was ALWAYS my number one confidant, I could tell her anything and believe me I did. When I accepted Christ and joined the church, she was there, when I graduated from high school, she was there, when the Lord brought my husband, my sweet Red Mobley into my life she was there. She was one of the first people that we told and I remember sitting in her living room as she cried “Happy Tears” with me. When my Daddy bought my wedding dress she insisted that I take it to her house and every fitting was done in her living room. One night she called me and said you wanna go get a “What a Burger “? We got to the restaurant and finished eating she said ... I have a question for you. I said ok. She said Becky and Chris already both have cedar chests and I would like for you to have mine. Well as you can imagine lots and lots of tears 😭

On my wedding day my girls and I were waiting to start and she knocked on the door and came in. As you can imagine I started to cry 😭, she walked over and lifted and adjusted my veil and said “ Happy Tears” ? I said yes ma’am and she said ... Babe we’ve prayed for this day and today our prayers have been answered. She kissed my cheek and said... Today is your Day ... Be Happy and know that I love you always and always ❤️ and I know that she did. I was fortunate enough to see her a couple of months ago when she and Becky stopped by my house for a brief visit. She didn’t get out of the car but as always we did our “I love you’s ❤️ I will always TREASURE that day.

Becky, Chris and Rusty I love you all so much and as much as we will all miss her as a dear friend has told me many , many times ... You haven’t lost something (someone) when you know where it is!! I know that I know that I know that my Aunt Sue is in heaven today with my Uncle Henry and my Mama and Daddy!
And as I have heard her sing so many times...
“Heaven will surely be worth it ALL!!!
I pray that I can and will be the Aunt to all of my nieces and nephews that you were to me!!

Aunt Sue I love you always, always and ALWAYS 🗄️ 🐣

“ Such a wonderful, sweet Christian lady whom Jack and I loved very much. She will be missed tremendously by us as well as her FBCC family. She was always willing to help, a wonderful Sunday School teacher and did a great job checking on the ladies in her Gleaners Sunday School class. Well done Mrs. Sue. Go fly high on that mountain!
