“ It's still so unbelievable that you're gone Dad. When I saw you last I thought you would be ok and we would visit more.
I have some fond memories as a child, hanging out with Cliff & Linda Johnson and Ben and Jimmy. Taking us kids to see Star wars several times in a packed theatre. cane pole fishing. running around with me on your shoulders and the time we sat on the bbq pit and I ate the oysters as fast as you could shuck them, lol. Wolf the puppy you got ate moms bonsai tree, lol.
I will especially miss our conversations we had one on one that were honest and enlightening..
We had our good times and had over the years, but we never stopped loving each other.
I will always remember you Dad
You will be missed and I love you
I will see you again in heaven

“ R.I.P DADDY...Thank you for giving me the greatest gift I could have ever asked for the gift of being your daughter. You didn't have to be but you chose to be and you chose me and that was the greatest gift I could've ever asked for GOD Blessed me when he chose you to be my DAD... I know we had our ups and downs over the years and I also know that I made alot of stupid choices and made alot of mistakes along the way but the one thing you never did was turn away from me or turn your back on me instead you chose to love me and guide me instead of hating me or being angry with me and I will forever be grateful for that cause it made me who I am today and It also made me want to thank you for the last 45 yrs that I got to spend with you I will forever cherish all those memories and time that we had to together so thanks for always loving me DADDY...we love and miss you and you will forever be in our hearts and forever missed...I know your in a much better place and your no longer in pain and GOD just needed another ANGEL....we love and miss you so much ❤️
