

Billy Joe Sanders

March 2, 1966 - December 18, 2023

Billy Joe Sanders, 57, of Woodville, passed away unexpectedly on December 18, 2023. He was a lifetime resident of this area. He owned and operated Sanders Farms Trucking. Billy Joe loved going to church, going to rodeos and enjoyed being out in his boat. He would carry on a conversation with anyone; enjoyed talking. The best part of his day was being home with his wife and family.

He will be remembered by his wife Tammi Sanders, father Jr. Sanders and wife Patsy, children Morgan Bradley and husband Chase, Dalton Gray and wife Allison & Cole Sanders, and siblings Mike Musachio, Deborah Boutwell and husband Eric, Mary Beth Woodward, Kim East and husband Butch & Mark Haley and wife Tracy.

Billy Joe was predeceased by his mother Ruth Sanders.

The family will receive friends Thursday, December 21, 2023, 5:00-7:00 pm at Family Funeral Home/Harvey Young Chapel. Funeral Service will be Friday, December 22, 2023, 11:00 am at the Panacea Full Gospel Church and burial will immediately follow at Sanders Hill Cemetery in Sopchoppy.

In Lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made to the Lighthouse Children's Home, www.lighthousechildrenshome.com 7771 Mahan Dr, Tallahassee, FL 32309 (850) 877-3778.

Skip & Trey Young along with Paula and Kimberly are caring for the family and assisting with the arrangements. 850-926-5919 Familyfhc.com

“ Billy Joe was a great person and a good friend. I enjoyed what he represented in life and that was God, family, and friends. I have many many stories about Billy Joe as most of us do, but I enjoyed listening him sharing his testimony about what Jesus has done in his life the most. He was a true man of God and an inspiration to everyone who knew him We love you Tammie... He is in the arms of the person he longed for and thats his Lord and savior, Jesus.
