I'm reminded every day, as I pass your road, that life on earth is fleeting and we are given the choice and freedom to be the best and to do the best. Our families were close in the early days when we were the only ones on Balkin Road when it was just a little dirt road and 6' ditches. We all kept watch up and down the road and we could do anything. Becoming adults, time and responsibilities separated us for many years but when we came back together we were where we left off. Your momma was the one of the best and last of her kind. She is missed. I'm thankful for my momma still being with me and when she goes, she will be the last of their kind. We were blessed with beautiful children and grandchildren. I hate to say goodbye so, until we meet again. I love you and I am glad to have known you.
