“ My dear Brother, I will miss you so much. You and I were were so close. I am still shocked that we lost you so early but God needed you for something. I can't question that because He knows what He is doing but I can miss you so much it hurts. You are loved by everyone that met you. You are the best!! miss you brother, I miss our talks, our laughs but I will hold on to those. I will do as I promised you and take care of Cindy! Rest in peace with no more pain.
