I sure hope it is not too late to make a post, but seeing these photos just made my day since I couldn't be there for Brenda's funeral. She surely was one of my dearest friends in the world. Thank you for sharing such a beautiful tribute of her life. I hope that late portrait was her Mary Kay photo we had so much fun, I still have my copies of everyone.

Brenda was my youngest of 4 girls. She was my side kick from birth until she died. We baked together, planned many, many wedding, baked cakes, did flower arrangements for friends, cooked Holiday meals for family, for kids at the church, even sang gospel songs in family groups during revivals and other occasions. She was irreplaceable in my life. How will I continue to cope with out her. My only consolation is that she in no doubt now singing in the Angel Choir and seeing Jesus face to face. I loved you all your life and will continue to love you always. MOM
