Nancy, Catherine, and Phillip you were blessed to have this loving, intelligent, caring woman as your mother. Carol and I were sorority sisters and studied together at Mercer. And then Carol married Lamar whose parents were dear friends of Frances and Albert McCowen who became my in-laws in 1965. When you moved back to Atlanta from Chicago you lived in my neighborhood. And David and I used to see Nancy and family at the local Mexican restaurant often; so glad we are able to keep up on Facebook now. Our hearts are with you. Sending love from all the McCowens, including our daughters Cathy and Leigh Anne.
