

Carolyn A. Olah

December 30, 1936 - September 23, 2023

Carolyn A. Olah, 86 of Crawfordville, passed away peacefully on September 23, 2023. She was surrounded by her loving family. Carolyn will be remembered fondly by her community. She served for more than 30 years as a judicial assistant to Judge George Harper, Judge Mike Carter and Judge Jill Walker. She also worked in the Wakulla County Clerk's office for Carlton Tucker, J. Harold Thurmond and Brent Thurmond. She was a member of First Pentecostal Church of Crawfordville. She loved shopping and cooking; and she adored her grandchildren. Her survivors are sons, Robin Dias (Lea), Randall Dias (Joy), and Richard Dias (Joan); grandchildren, Jeremy, Amanda, David, Danyelle, and Misty; and great-grandchildren, Owen, Mason, Carson, Amelia. A Celebration of Carolyn's Life will be held on October 6, 2023 at 10:00 at First Pentecostal Church Crawfordville. Her final resting place will be at Arran Cemetery. Skip and Trey Young, along with Paula and Kimberly are assisting the family with arrangements.

“ I looked forward to Sunday morning when she would come in to church and we made our way to the front classroom and I would comb her hair and she would say “ah! Sis. Barbara that feels so good.” I just wish I could have done it for many more Sunday’s. I sure loved this precious lady who loved her family, her church, her friends, her God and me also.

“ Best pecan pies ever. I was lucky enough to work with Carolyn while she was a J.A. for Judge Walker and I loved her pecan pies. I begged and pleaded until she shared her recipe with me. I still make the pies for my family, and I always give credit to Carolyn. She was a wonderful lady. Much love to her family. She will be missed.
