“ Cheryl was like family to myself. Carol and Elemer Bearden were my parents best finds, I grow up having two sets of parents. Then along came Cheryl and I was no long the only child. She was the cutest baby every. Love seeing her grow up to a wonderful young lady. So sad for your loss. She now will be with her Mom and Dad and my parents. Such a great loss. She was a very dedicated worker, loved her church family and a very caring person. So sorry we lost touch with one another. My loss. God Bless the family and friends.

“ I didn't know Cheryl very well, but what I did know was that she was a very caring person. We were learning to knit together. We laughed together as we made mistakes and had to rip them out. She always tried to stay upbeat through all her health problems.
