“ Cheryl was a special kind of person that could always make you feel at ease in her presence. For me, when finally meeting her in person for the first time, there was a familiarity and comfort present that made me feel as if we were old friends reconnecting after many years. I will always cherish the brief times I had the pleasure to spend with her and will forever keep our memories together under the safe guardianship of my heart.

For the family, I pray that you may somehow find peace, and the strength to carry on in her memory. My love for the Galloway Family runs deep and I know well enough that the love and devotion they have for one another and their Supreme Being will uplift them and uphold them through yet another trying time in their lives. Hold tightly to one another and draw closer as the next few days unfold knowing that together you may all overcome the pain of your devastating loss and begin to clear a pathway forward.

May Cheryl's ever present memory forever be the eternal flame that lights your way in all that you do.

My cousin Cheryl was that bridge between everyone who connected us all. That is a big responsibility. I remember my mom, Jeraldine being that way as well as her mom Millie J. Galloway (Cheryl's grandma). Those people who bring others together are truly very special and unique individuals. I will miss that about my cousin. My thoughts and prayers are with our families at this time.

Gregory ❤️ 🙏
