“Ms. China” was one of the kindest ladies ever. No matter where you saw her, she had the sweetest smiles, always asked how you and your family were and gave the most sincere hugs. Whether it was the WHS lunchroom or the grocery store, she was always the same. We are very sorry to hear of her passing.

Such a sweet loving lady. I met her many, many years ago as her kids went through the old Shadeville School and our friendship grew thru the years. Miss China was the same wherever you saw her and will be sorely missed in her community. Our sadness is heaven rejoicing!

“The words to describe such a dear soul do not exist. Always put others ahead of herself not worrying about what it would result in. Rest peacefully Aunt. China.
