“ Ms Christine had the biggest heart I've ever known. Many years ago she was my boss and it was at a time when I was really struggling financially and didn't have the skill level for which she was paying me for but Instead of firing me, she trained me on her own time and that was after managing several apartments, facility guys, contractors, edition notices ect. Just so that I can eat, have shelter, and pay my bills. I can't honestly tell you successful I would have been today if it were not for her caring. May God bless you Ms Christine, and we will all see you in heaven to thank you one day.
