“ I served with Chris in the Army, he will always be a Delta Dawgs brother. While stationed at Fort Carson a fellow soldier had a girlfriend at a College in Durango, Colorado.. The 3 of us took that 7-8 hour road trip up there and had a great fun filled weekend. A great memory that I will always remember

“ When my brother and I were young and my mom started dating Chris we went to stay the night one weekend at his house...I remember him having this big back yard and bunkbeds for us, but it was the big semi truck that had our attention. We thought it was just the coolest and he said we could play inside the bed area and if we wanted to help wash it. I dont know how long we were out there, and I know we couldn't even reach most of the truck for it to be actually clean...but he let us have our day with it. I only wonder now as an adult if he ever thought about the water bill. Haha. He made us happy and comfortable in a situation that was new for us...and that was the first greatest step that ended up building our family. Love ya Dad. Take it easy...

“ I remember Uncle Lester and Aunt Ruth calling me and asking if I'd take Chris to the movies, usually on Sunday afternoon. He was always funny and a pleasure to be around. Sorry I lost contact with him after he grew up.
R.I.P. Chris and I'll see ya at the GREAT REUNION!!!
