“ I read this in his voice. He had such a great cadence to the way he spoke: slow and gentle and with precision. He paused just long enough to make his points more powerful. His daughters talk a lot and over each other in a braid of conversation, one then the next it's tough to each who is speaking and then his gentle but clear voice just carried over them and you could always hear it out even though he wasn't loud. I wish I had recorded him speaking.

“ Claxton will be missed by all who knew him. He was an historian who knew history of Sopchoppy and Wakulla County. Hopefully, he recorded the history for future Sopchoppy residents.
