Worked with Cliff at Flint River Services in Albany, GA. He was always acting the fool and laughing. He turned frowns upside down and the biggest Noles fan I've ever known. Keep those boiled peanuts warm, buddy.

Wow! Was not expecting this. I hadn't seen Cliff nor his family since we were kids in Carrollton Georgia. We lived at the same apartment complex called Paradise. They later moved to the apartments right next to Paradise called Lakeview. I remember times playing in the woods exploring. Playing ball(football especially) trying to see who could make the most spectacular catch. Or who could stay upright the longest before being tackled. Cliff was quick and had good balance when running with the football. We sure had fun. My thoughts and love go out to his kids, parents and siblings Teresa and Dawnette.
