“ Danna was one in a million. Her upbeat attitude and love for our Lord, Jesus Christ, made her shine. Even though Danna has been dealing with a serious illness for years, she never complained and always told us Jesus was looking out for her. That she would be okay. She is now resting in our Savior’s arms and breathing heavenly air, free of pain. I treasure the years I have known Danna and count her as one of my most cherished and beloved friends. Rest in peace, dearest Danna. Ann Donaway
