“ David Raker was a childhood friend that had an impact on my life in Orlando before he moved to live with his Dad . We played driveway basketball and baseball together and had many friends in common. He was fun to be around and his family were gracious to put up with me . We chatted on FB about the Gators and seminole just recently. I had hoped to see him again but now it will have to be on the other side . RIP dear friend and I will share our memories with those who knew us in the past. Condolences to all who loved him as he loved you .

“ This is Sheen. I worked with David and knew him for years. He and I would watch fireworks on loading dock at DHSMV when he was security guard and I worked in computer room on 4th of July. Later he worked in computer room also. 40 years of being my Dear Friend. He had a Gentle Soul and I loved him. RIP David. Prayers to the family and friends. He will truly be missed.
