

Debbie Wheeler

May 19, 1955 - February 22, 2020

On a Saturday afternoon, February 22, 2020, our Lord took my angel into His arms and ended her suffering on this earth.

Deborah was my light and my best friend for almost thirty years of marriage. We had no children between us. That was ok because we ran around together like a couple of kids ourselves. My parents called us kids.

She would tell people that I was her husband and her boyfriend.

People that knew her knew that she felt things deeply in her heart. If you were her friend she loved you. If you were not her friend she did not wish ill upon you.

Debbie loved music and singing. She sang in a band before I met her. She attended Abilene C.C. on a voice scholarship. She also loved all of the awards programs with the stars, Emmys, Oscars, etc.

She knew who was going to win each award and was right 98% of the time!

Debbie loved Jesus, dogs, making new friends, all of her family, saving cut outs of happy, loving, positive quotes or poems, Joyce Meyer and me.

She was patriotic, republican and the Captain of our voting precinct for several years. She moved here in the late seventies and lived in Tallahassee from then on. She loved the beach and to travel on our little vacations we took together.

Our faith was Church of Christ. She attended Timberlane before we met and Meridian Woods after we were married.

Debbie was one hundred percent female and loved all things frilly, soft, sweet and girlish. She loved me completely and I loved her. No argument could last.

Lots of people will miss her and I will never forget her.

“Debbie and I were both working after 5 O'clock in different parts of the building at the printing business we both were employed at, in Tallahassee, in 1990.

I was ready to go home and told her that now she was the only one in the building and

"see you tomorrow".

I always left by the back door to the parking lot. She always left by the front door.

As I stepped into the parking lot I heard a very loud

"WOOSH"...then "WOOSH" again!

Realizing it was coming from above, I looked up to see two hot air balloons slowly gliding low above me pulling on their flame blowers!

It occurred to me that she would really like to see this, so I went back inside and said,

"Debbie quick come outside and see the hot air balloons!" She dropped what she was doing and walked outside with me to watch what was now three hot air balloons gliding slowly right over our heads!

"Wow that was really neat", she said, "thanks for showing that to me, pretty cool!"

During this time folks could go to Falls chase land and the city would welcome the Balloon rally event on the north east side of town.

A spark was struck as she called me later on a Saturday morning to wish me a happy birthday, and we talked a lot, then later that evening I took her out on our first date to Angelo's seafood restaurant.

One of my favorite memories.

“ Debbie was a wonderful, thoughtful, joy-filled woman of faith. I first met her when she grabbed me at my local voting precinct a few elections ago, because she noticed we shared the same birthday, and she signed me up to be a poll worker and one of her staff! We worked the last election together and she was one warm and wonderful person. She thought of everybody. She made everyone feel welcome, special and cared for. She was so bubbly and so funny!

I was looking forward to seeing her again at the upcoming primary, but I was sadly informed, just today, that she had passed away. I am now trying to fill her shoes as the clerk of the precinct she was in charge of for so many years.

May God bless and comfort her wonderful family and all her loved ones. She will be greatly missed.

I enjoyed knowing Debbie in her role as Elections Clerk at the Bethel Methodist Church polling location. We worked together for eight years of election cycles. We will miss her enthusiasm and cheerfulness.

Debbie, my dear sweet life-time friend, rest in the arms of Jesus. You made such an impact on my life. We were family, from the 1st time we met at Pat's Place. You will be forever in my heart. I love you so much and miss knowing you would always be there for me. I miss your smile, your laughter and your willingness to serve others. ~~ Doodle
