“ Donny was the big brother of two other sister's one named Laurie, she loved him deeply. He also had another sister named Nellie. Which I knew cared about him. Laurie loved her brother more than anyone knew, she wasn't near him. But it never stopped how she cherished him. Sadly she had her own battle with cancer. I felt it should be known that he had more than two sisters. Last time Laurie and Nellie were all together was after Donnys heart surgery. She thought it was one of those special moments siblings share. Because they hadn't spent any time all together as siblings since they were children. Only one thing that would of made it even more perfect was if thier sister Cindy would of all been together. One more time . Donny and Patti seemed perfect for each other and in love. Laurie was happy that he found his true love, had a beautiful family. Now with the angels rest in peace.

“ Donny was a great guy. He was always funny and very nice. Donny respected everyone until you messed with his family. He always gave a person no matter who a chance. I remember the first time I met Donnie was at his house when I was dropping off Little Donnie, Big Donnie was working on one of his Novas and he looked like a grease monkey but he was still kind and friendly. May he R.I.P. Go fly with the other Angel's Donnie and watch over your family. You will always be loved and very sadly missed.
Patty, Lila, Perry, Donny, Cherokee, Kyle, Katie, Mattew and Shalei, I am so sorry for the passing of your loved one. Keep Donnie tucked down in your heart, hang your pictures with pride and always remember, Donnie is not gone....he is just a few steps away and is with you everyday.

“ I remember meeting you (Donny) and Patti when you guys lived in Jacksonville, Illinois when Joe (Peewee) Skaggs and first started dating. I was nervous but you both made me feel like family already. My heart is full of memories with you all. Donny you were a loving father and great husband to Patti. I will always love and miss you may you fly high with the Angels. RIP Sheri (Skaggs) Obrien
