“ Earles, our dear friend and brother in Christ, you beat us to the promised land, but we will, hopefully all be with you soon when our Lord comes for us.

Earles, you were there with us at the beginning of Debbie's life with the Lord and at our wedding, you lent your name to our son and blessed us with many good times and cherished memories.

We love you dearly and know you are singing for our Savior now. 'Til we meet you in Glory.
