“ Esteban Springer, a beloved brother, son, and proud member of the Special Force's. Known for his fearless spirit, infectious laughter, and boundless energy, he brought light and levity wherever he went—even in the darkest moments. Whether he was making his team laugh during the toughest missions or dancing in the kitchen just to make someone smile, his presence was a gift. He served his country with unwavering dedication and lived each day with boldness, heart, and humor. His courage was matched only by his joy for life. He will be forever loved and never forgotten—his legacy of love, laughter, and strength will live on in all who knew him.
