“ Flavey and Hilda were the best people you could ever hope to know. I spent most of my childhood in their loving care. They taught me a love for the outdoors, farming, animals and most importantly Jesus. I spent countless hours following Flavey around the farm and chasing the cows. He taught me how to play Chinese checkers. I learned how to chew sugar cane and grind it. The love they both showed me was immeasurable. They were a blessing to my life. Flavey will be missed.

“ I'm so sad to hear Mr. Flavey passed away. I was so lucky that I was able to stay with them for a few years for childcare. I learned so much from him and Mrs. Hilda. They were like family to me. I have such fond memories. Learning how to clean fish, the difference in row color and its meaning. The house and lunches hot dog buns with ketchup as a side (Sounds crazy but it was good at their house). Washing clothes on a scrub board and hanging them on the line. Picking blackberries and me eating many of them instead of putting them in the basket. My cousin cut my hair off their and I bit Ricky's back and got bit back by Mrs. Hilda. I was also bit by their dog in the head. Climbing the mimosa tree in the front yard. They loved me and I loved them. I miss my sweet friend.
