“ Lany is the last of a loving family to leave this world, he was born into a family of 13 siblings, being the youngest. I think of him playing the guitar, he loved music, was a great cook too, was our entertainment at Newman family reunions. Goodbye, Uncle Lany, I love you and will miss texting you. Thanks for the help you gave me with mom, your sister. Enjoy your family now with Jesus' arms around you.

My favorite memories are from Uncle Delana telling stories. You never knew if they were true or made up until the end and sometimes not even then. Once my Dad and I went to his gas station and he started telling a story. Several people pulled up for gas, they just got out of their car and came in. It was winter and pouring rain but they came in to hear the story. The guys said that was part of the fun of going to his station.

Always fun memories of Uncle Delana, don't remember him ever being mad. Always looked forward to him being at the family reunion. He will be missed.
