“ Andy was a fine person, his passing comes as such a surprise. We would see him in the bay, fishing and having a great time. We will miss you Andy but think of you each time we are in the bay and someday we will meet on the other side. Prayers to his lovely family.

Still cant believe that you're gone. You wrote the sweetest message to me when my Daddy recently passed away and hugged my neck in Walmart the other day even though we were supposed to be "Social Distancing" ... lol ... RIP my friend I know that you have already found the "Best" fishing hole in Heaven

I really don't have the words... No way to articulate. This man has been my friend since first grade... Hundreds and hundreds of memories through the years. I was there as his best man when he married... I was there as his friend when he divorced 😭 I would've taken a bullet for Andy and I believe he would've for me. I drove him to South Carolina to pick up his son Wesley as a newborn... I worked with him, finished with him, ran the streets as young men, And grew up finally and matured somewhat in our later years. There was always one, and that was our friendship... Whether I saw him twice a week or twice a year. My world is much less today than it was yesterday. I love you brother

My thoughts and Prayers for Mr. Jones and Ms. Faye, Gibb, Cindy, Lynn, and Kim. Andy and my drift apart a while ago but he still was a friend. We spent many days fishing and hanging out at different places after high school and when I came home from the service. he will be missed and i will always remember the great times we had at the farm, fishing springcreek, alligator point, and in T-Town. RIP my friend, you will be missed.
