

Heather Lee Meives

April 5, 1975 - March 17, 2022

L. Meives, 46, formerly of Peru, Indiana, passed away March 17, at home from an extended illness, in Crawfordville, Florida.

Born April 5, 1975, to Richard and Nancy Lybrook, Heather began her whirlwind of a life. In June 1993, she married her best friend and love of her life, Barack. From 1995 to 2000, they welcomed three sons and one daughter into the world.

After the tragedy of 9/11, Heather aspired to be a nurse to help others. She worked as an EMT while raising four children and attending nursing school. Upon her graduation, she put her blood, sweat, and tears into all the various roles of her career.

She later went on to complete her BSN in nursing, then recently began to her work toward obtaining her master's degree. Although unable to finish her courses, WGU will grant her the master's degree posthumously.

In her free time, Heather was an avid knitter, yarn connoisseur, and enjoyed trips with Barack on the boat. Her favorite things included the beach, llamas, true crime podcasts, and all things involving Disney.

Preceding her are: Her grandparents, Tom and Ramona Lybrook, and John

Phillip and Dorothy Behan. Her loving mother, Nancy. Her Aunt and Uncle, Jackie and Joseph. Her niece, Brooke. And lastly, a baby brother who was born sleeping.

She is survived by: Her husband, Barack. Her children and bonus children, Austin, Trevor and Katie, Nathan, and Peyton and Kyle. Her father and Stepmother, Richard and Stella. Aunts and Uncles, Cathy and Dave, Phyllis and Keith, Carma and Jesse, and Judy. Stepsisters, Angie and Debbie. An array of cousins. Nieces and Nephews, Garrett, Morgan and Anthony, Zach, Jezyca, Allie, Hunter, Sam, James, Brock, Haylie, Reese, and Emma. And one great nephew, Asher.

A celebration of Heather's life will take place April 2nd from 1-4pm at the Lincolnwood Cooperative Apartment Club House in Kokomo, Indiana. This will be in open house style, come and go as you wish.

"Love is a song that never ends. Life may be swift and fleeting. Hope may die yet love's beautiful music comes each day like the dawn." – Bambi, 1942

Skip & Trey Young are assisting the family. Family Funeral Home at Harvey Young Chapel.

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

APR 2. 1:00 PM - 4:00 PM.

Lincolnwood Cooperative Apartment Club House
Kokomo, IN