“ Rest in peace, my friend. You stepped up and befriended me, and mentored me in 1973 when I lost my father. I'll never forget you. I love you, man.

What precious memories I cherish of the active little red headed boy. You were our pride and joy. Our last meeting was about 4 years ago at the Ennis family Christmas reunion. It was such a wonderful time trying to cover so many years of memories in just one day. So my precious nephew, I take great pleasure in sweet memories. We were indeed bless by having you grace our family. Continuing love, Pearline Ennis Duranske
