“ I have known Jimmy for over fifty-five years. He was my first boy friend at the age of fifteenth. We lived in the same neighborhood and would play ball behind Sable Palm school. Jimmy as we knew him took me to my first dance. Rest in peace my friend your journey on this earth is over.

“ JR was a good friend he love to hunt and fish. He loved his children with all his heart. If he was your friend he was right beside you no matter what. If he was your enemy you better watch out. Will miss the great talks we had and his opinions that he gave. RIP my good friend.
