“ This Ship's Setting Sail

*Tied to this harbor-
loaded with care
At times this ole vessel
is tempted to despair,
But then the gentle breezes remind me of the day,
When my sails will be hoisted, and I'll be on my way.*

*Early one morning this ship's setting sail!
No more tied to harbor- All will be well.
My life here's been blessed, but I long for the time
When I will be headed for that Homeland of mine.*

*Moorings are loosened-
Anchors are heaved.
Another child of Zion has taken his leave.
We'll sorrow not as others, for no Captain have they,
Who has sailed o'er these waters, and has charted the way!
