“ Jim was one of the best worshippers I have ever met. He had a heart like Mary, Martha's sister. He loved to be at Jesus feet or laying before His throne. I can't fully grasp how excited and elated he is now to be in the very presence of His Lord and Savior. Thanks Jim for the good and godly example you have set and also the passionate pursuit of our Lord.

Diane, our prayers are with you and the rest of the family as you move through the grief and ascend through the joys of precious memories.

I am so very thankful that Debbie and I were able to worship with Jim, one more time.

“ Jim always had a big hug and a big smile whenever I saw him. Even if he wasn't feeling well , he always would smile. I feel so blessed to have known him and Diane. GOD BLESS this family.

“ I never knew Bro. Jim and Sister Diane very well, but did know them to be committed to each other and to their Lord. Jim had a very sweet and gentle spirit. We are not poorer for having known him. Heaven has gained a wonderful new angel. To Sister Diane and the family, my thoughts and prayers are with you all. May God's peace enfold you in the days ahead.
