“ After months of texting to say hello to my dear friend I decided to try and google his work and call him at the office. I found sad news instead. I am heart broken... I had the pleasure of being your friend john for over 30 years. Talking with you at night on your back porch while I stayed with you in... I am without words. Love you

“ What a shock when the work of John's passing was posted. Too soon for this man. He will be missed on the field of Civil War reenacting, but will be missed more in life itself. Rest in peace, until we meet on the other side of the river.

“ I am so sad to hear of John's passing. I met John through Civil War re-enacting around 1999. His boys and mine would drill and play. We became good friends. We also shared a love of music. We spent may hours and evenings sitting by the camp fire pickin' and singing. John was a an easy person to talk to, and we shared many conversations about our families, and life. He was a man I held in high esteem, and with the greatest respect. I will miss you terrbily John . I send my love and my prayers for the family. I am blessed for knowing John, and will look forward to seeing him again in heaven.

“ It is with deep sorrow that I share in the Bracken family's loss of this great man. I was privileged to call him friend and to serve with and for John during Civil War re-enactments. His wit, wisdom and spirit touched so many. He will be missed but I rejoice in knowing that we will all have a chance to reunite with John in his eternal peace by accepting Jesus as our Lord and Savior. Farewell friend. See you on the other side. GRUMBLE
