

John H. Fake

April 6, 1956 - January 10, 2019

John H. Fake, 62, of Crawfordville, died January 10, 2019 at home with his loving family. He was born April 6, 1956 in Troy, New York. He met his wife Renee in Thomasville, Georgia while working on a golf course. He was Golf Superintendent at many courses around the Southeast, one being Hilaman Golf Course in Tallahassee. After retirement he worked for the Wakulla County School System maintaining the High School Football field. John loved golfing and his son Kenneth has many great memories being on the golf course together, but his family was his greatest love, "He was a good Daddy" and spoiled his grandbabies. He enjoyed watching tv, FSU football and his dogs. He is survived by his wife of 31 1/2 years Renee Fake, son Kenneth Fake, daughter Sarah Bobo & husband Zac, brother Ken Cooper & wife Lori, sister Candace Firth & husband Rod, and 3 grand children Gabriella, Gabriel & Gracelynn.
