Christy Britt -- John L took me fishing for on Mothers Day in 2011 and I caught this. He wasn't in the pic, but he took it. I sent the pic to Woods and Water and they published it. It was his honey hole and I had to keep the actual location details top secret. I will always cherish that morning. 34" Redfish caught on Mother's Day. Approx 9:30 in/around Ochlocknee Bay using live Shrimp ~ close to shore at the end of high tide and very shallow waters, took the drag and what fun it was. I was sure hoping he was going home with us, but no such luck. My Mother's Day Present.....too bad I had to release him 😊 But what a great memory.
