Joyce and I worked together at the Printing House many years ago, but I always think of her beautiful smile when I cut a birthday cake just like she taught me. She was a genuinely sweet soul and my condolences go out to her family for their loss.

“ Growing up Joyce had more than two dozen cousins on her mother's side. And yes, we did all get together for family events! Being close in age, Joyce was often my “partner in crime”. (Hey, could we help it that the roof of my mother's house was a great hide-and-seek spot?) Though we grew apart in time and distance, I am sorry to lose Joyce. But the memories of our happy childhood will help me smile when I remember her. I hope that her family and friends can also laugh or smile over their memories, and come to peace with our loss.

“ Once we met it did not take long for Joyce and I to become friends. We shared the love of family, the desire to travel, fishing and the beach. She was such a loving and generous person and soon opened her heart and her home to me. I will always remember us watching one of her favorite TV shows, “The Masked Singer”, sitting around a campfire in the backyard and surf fishing at Saint George Island. I’m so thankful to have known her and will always be thankful for her friendship and generosity.

“ When we think of Joyce it will always be with a smile on our face and joy in our heart. She loved to make people laugh with her many funny stories. She enjoyed life so much and had a natural curiosity. I think for those who knew her she left them with something special to think about. She fought so very long and hard to keep pushing forward. We are so very sorry for your family's loss and send our condolences.
