“ Mrs. Thomas was kind and joyful and a dear friend of my parents. I remember her laughter, banana cream pie, and an epic Mary Kay party. I offer my respects to her family, whom she always spoke of with great pride, love, and devotion. Peace be with you all.

“ I honor the sweet, generous, steadfast, Christian woman that Joyce was, and send love and comfort to all those who knew her and mourn her passing.

Joyce and Ted have been friends, colleagues and pals to our family for over half a century. Our families shared so many benchmarks of life's passages and adventures. No matter distance, passage of time or circumstances, my parents (Marvin and Mary Cutright) and Joyce and Ted stayed in touch. When they were able to get together, it was if the gang was back together in Washington County.

The last time I was able to visit with Joyce in person, I took her and my mother out for chai tea latte at a local Texas tea house, allowing Dad and Ted to catch up on their own. Us gals had a great visit, sharing updates and reminiscing. It was wonderful to see Mom and Joyce back together and sharing tales of experience as women, wives and mothers, and perhaps most importantly, sharing hugs and laughter.
