“ So sad to hear that Judy passed last week. I feel so lucky to have met her. I think she was a flower child in her day. She was a voracious reader and always offering me books. She introduced me to P.D. James. I will miss seeing her parked down the street each morning and stopping to chat with her. She always smiled. She is with her dearly departed kitties that she was so faithful to. □□□□□

“ I love you grandma. You've taught me so many lessons and I'll never forget Your contagious laugh, or the way you'd sigh when you saw something that irritated you. I'll never forget eating tomatoes from your garden, or the sound of your voice. Growing up with you in my life every step of the way has been the most exciting up and down ride I'll ever be on. Thank you for ALWAYS being my biggest supporter and encourager. Thank you for making sure I utilized my talent. Thank you for loving me.
