“ I met Kerri when I started working on IMCU at TMH. A sweet sweet soul with a mothers touch. Gave the best hugs and best advice. It was such an honor to know her. She will be missed dearly. Sending love to all her over family.

“ I have so many great memories with Kerri working IMCU at TMH. She was a fabulous nurse and most of all an amazing person, she loved deep and was always kind and patient with everyone she met. Her hugs were the best, her smile even better, and not to mention she would always bring me the good snacks. I always brought her spaghetti when I cooked it, she said it reminded her of home. Ill never forget how excited and grateful she would be every single time. Kerri is the best of the best and will be missed by so many “ Kerri was the definition of kind hearted and the embodiment of selflessness! When asked to help, the word "No" never entered her mind, and more frequently, the asking was not necessary. She offered herself freely and with out reservation. Family, friends, and strangers alike. To sum it up, Kerri was (and is) a true "Christian Soul!" I am not only blessed but, the better for having known her!

“ I was a TMH Junior Volunteer when I got my first assignment in IMCU & Kerri was as sweet as could be. I was an overwhelmed 14 year old girl, but she made sure I was included & valued on the unit even with small tasks. I cannot even begin to explain her influence on why I am going into medicine, but she will always have a place in my heart. Coming as a TMH employee in the ICU now, she will be missed dearly.
