

Kevin Edward Norton

March 8, 1958 - October 4, 2024

Kevin Edward Norton, LCSW a prominent member of Crawfordville and Tallahassee passed away unexpectedly on Friday, October 4, 2024, at the age of sixty-six. Throughout his personal life journey, Kevin developed a great passion to helping those in need. Kevin has counseled hundreds of people guiding people through their personal crisis, saving many along the way in their battles against addiction. It was his mission in life to help others and to give back to the community. His lectures and counseling sessions were moving performances, often involving his therapy dog, Mr. T, as well as music including many of his own recordings. At a very young age, Kevin's mother taught him the language of music. His life was always full of music, and he was rarely seen without his guitar (or two) hanging from his shoulders. Kevin adored his family and was a dedicated husband, a very proud father and grandfather (PeePaw). His wisdom was profound, and he was always the guy with the answers. Time spent with Kevin as his client or as a member of his beloved family was like being in a philosophy class with his infinite wisdom and lessons from his personal journey of life all shared in a manner that was warm and full of encouragement.

He will be remembered and deeply missed by his wife Linda Norton, children Mary Norton Batt (Jeff), Maggie Norton, Nichole Grady (Lance) & Kirk Ciolkosz (Lindsey), siblings Carol Ann Rogers (Nielsen), Esquire Brian Edward Norton, Mary Beth Durant (Peter), Patricia Norton, 6 grandchildren Cerissa, Bry, Elena, Justin (Natalie), Branden, Victoria, 2 great-grandchildren, Madelyn and Mason and many nieces & nephews.

Kevin was predeceased by his parents Dr. Edward Norton of Bascom Palmer Eye Institute of Miami, FL and his Mother Mary Norton.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Friday, October 11, 2024, 2:00 PM at the AA Station House/Wakulla Station, 3106 Shadeville Road, Crawfordville, FL.
