“ Baby,

It has been a very rough few weeks and right now I could use one of your wonderful hugs. I miss you holding my hand, talking to me, laughing, spending time together, all the little things you used to do that made me laugh. I miss your beautiful and kind smile. The fact that you never had a mean bone in your body. You were always so sweet to whoever you met. I remember our very first date, I had to sit back and tell myself that this girl is an angel. You were so willing to help anyone in their time of need. Everywhere I go I see or hear something that makes me stop and immediately think of you. Today I was walking through the store and seen some pineapple and had to stop myself cause I grabbed two cans for you cause I knew you would love them. You are my angel and even though my mind and heart are still tender from your loss, you are my everything and all I think of. I really do miss you with all my heart. The last three and a half years were very rough for you, but I seen a strong and courageous women everytime I seen you. Not very many women, let alone men, could of been as strong as you were. To face the pain everyday to keep on going. To push past every obstacle that continued to come day after day. You are the most special, wonderful, strong, smart, beautiful, caring, loving, kind, and courageous person I have ever known. For that I am grateful to of been lucky enough for you to have loved me in the same capacity. I love you and will talk to you every chance I get. One day my angel we will be back together in each other's arms. I will be able to give you that hug and kiss I long for every second of the day. I will be able to tell you I love you and you say it back. For now you enjoy those streets of gold and one day I will walk them with you.

Forever your love,

Joshua

“ Josh, I am so sorry about the passing of Kira. My heart shattered into a million pieces when we recieved the news. Kira was such a beautiful person and had the kindest and sweetest heart. She always treated our 2 kids like they were her own. She never ever missed a birthday party or event....even though I know she might not have felt like being there. And i thank her for always being that sweet person. I will always cherish all the memories we made together, either on our double dates, seeing her in the hospital, or just hey how are you doing. Our last car ride we had together we laughed so hard as we compared "those Roddenberry boys", such sweet memories. Kira you will be missed dearly. You fought the good fight and now you can rest easy my sweet sweet friend/Aunt. We will talk about the memories and remind the kids often of your love for them and us. Go rest high on that mountain, we promise to always take care of Josh.

“ What a beautiful soul you were. Kira from meeting you for the first time on the cruise many blue moons ago right up until you went home to be with Jesus I admired the strength you had. You were hands down one of the kindest, caring, people I know. Although we're saddened that your no longer with us here on earth it brings so much happiness to know you are finally free of the pain and sickness you had to endure here. Now you are free to enjoy what ever you would like. Fly high beautiful you are free! We have Josh down here and will help him along the way! We will talk about you often to help carry on your memory! We love and will miss you tons!! We've got from here!!

“ *Baby,
Today has been rough. It's now been a week since you went to be with the good Lord. I am so happy that you are now free of all the pain and suffering you endured the last few months. You were so much more to me than anyone could ever imagine. Each breath I take I think of you and the time we did have together. The places we traveled, the people we met, the fish we caught, the animals that you loved to see, everything we did together meant so much to me. The thoughts that someone could love me as much as I love them is the best feeling in the world. I wish I could of finished some of the dreams we had of doing together but I don't regret any of it. The Lord said it was time to come home cause he needed another angel to help look over all of us. I just want you to know I love you and there is nothing in this world or the next that will keep me from seeing you again. I know that you will be a wonderous sight to see, as beautiful as you were here, I can't wait to see you as an angel. I love you with all my heart and soul.*

*Can't wait to see you again, Love,
Joshua*

“ Baby,

I know you know what I am thinking right now. That somehow you are able to read what I am writing. I know you can though and I want you to know I love you with every breath I take. It has been a hard few days since you went to be with the good Lord, but I know in my heart and soul that you are having a wonderful time now. You no longer have to suffer or endure the pain you were in. The pain I seen in your eyes every time that you woke up, tried to walk, and sometimes even talk or breathe. That pain doesn't exist anymore. I just want you to know, which you probably already seen from up in heaven, that you have so many family and friends that have poured their love out for us in this time of heartache. I know that this is going to take a long time to start to ease the pain and alot will never go away. I don't want it to go away overnight, cause when you truly love someone it hurts so bad when you loose them. I just want you to know that is how much I truly love you cause there is no doubt this is the most painful thing I've ever experienced. You were my angel here on Earth in the time we had here, I can just imagine what kind of angel you are in heaven. You are such a sweet, beautiful, kind, wonderful, caring, loving, and just all around great soul. I feel blessed for the time that we were able to spend together and there will be more to come when we are together again. Until then, I need to borrow a little of your time and have you keep an eye on me and our family and friends. You deserve to be happy and I know you are now, I love you and I will see you again.

*With all my heart and soul,
Joshua*

“ Baby,

There is so much I wish I could of said and things I wish I didn't, but I want you to know that you meant more to me than you could ever know. I love you and always will. You were the reason I woke up every day, the voice I looked to for comfort, the last thing I looked forward to at night was telling you I love you and giving you a kiss. Right now I know you are at peace. No more praying to get better, just you walking in heaven with family and friends. I will see you there one day when it is my time, until then I will see you everytime I open my eyes. I love you and cherish every moment we had together and I can't wait for the memories we will share when we meet again. I miss you more than anything I could ever tell you, but I know we will be together again.

*With all my heart and soul I love you,
Joshua*
