

Kristie Turner Godwin Lawrence

December 3, 1974 - December 18, 2017

Kristie Turner Godwin Lawrence, 43, of Crawfordville, died December 18, 2017. She was a native and life long resident of Wakulla County. Kristie graduated from Wakulla High School in 1993, where she excelled in most sports, but loved playing softball and received a softball scholarship to Pensacola Junior College. She was very active in the Wakulla County Swine Show Competition and had several grand champions and trophies for Showmanship. She loved animals, going to the beach, shopping and kayaking with her mom. Her greatest love and accomplishment was her daughter Brittany. Carole said, Kristie has always been the apple of my eye. She was a member of Pioneer Baptist Church.

She is survived by her daughter Brittany Godwin, mother Carole Turner, father Charles Turner (Diana), brothers Chuck Turner (Susan) & Dell Turner, 2 nephews Landon & Roger Turner, many aunts, uncles and cousins.

Predeceased by her husband Scott Lawrence, maternal grandparents George & Newell Ladd, uncle Trigger Ladd and paternal grandparents J.D. & Helen Turner.

Family will receive friends Friday, December 22, 2017, 2:30-3:30 pm at Friendship Baptist Church, Crawfordville and Funeral Service at 3:30 pm, burial will immediately follow at Friendship Memorial Gardens.

Arrangements are under the care of Skip Young with Family Funeral Home & Cremation Services. 850-926-5919 Familyfhc.com

I have no idea what it is to lose a child, but Kristie was like one of my own back when she was in high school. Her love of sports, her love of family, of friends. Her spunk for life and fun. God, rest your soul little one. Such a tiny person and a heart as big as the sky. Stella Beeler.
