

Kyla Love Parker

January 29, 2009 - August 20, 2024

Kyla Love Parker, 15, of Crawfordville, entered into God's presence, her eternal home on August 20, 2024. Kyla was a native and lifelong resident of Crawfordville. She was a member at River of Life, where she was a leader in her youth group, leading many to God's loving grace. Everywhere she went the Love of God was evident. Kyla was home schooled and also attended Wakulla High School, where she played Softball and was a weightlifter. She also played travel softball for many years, enjoyed fishing and deer & turkey hunting. Kyla displayed the joy of the Lord everywhere she went. In her final act of selflessness, Kyla chose to be an organ donor, reflecting her deep Christian love and compassion. Through this sacred gift, Kyla continues to bless and save lives, embodying the spirit of Christ's love for others.

She will be remembered by her loving parents Kyle & Amy Love Parker, siblings Easton, Kayden, Kyndal & Sutton, paternal grandparents James & Janice Parker, maternal grandmother Mina Sutton, maternal great grandmother Wilhelmina Morrison and many aunts, uncles & cousins.

Predeceased by her maternal grandfather Andy Sutton, maternal great grandfather Clarence Morrison Jr., and maternal great grandmother Jane Sutton. Also, paternal great grandmother Alice Parker.

The family will receive friends on Saturday, August 24, 2024, from 9:30-10:30 am at River of Life and the Funeral Service will begin at 10:30 am. Burial will follow at West Sopchoppy Cemetery.

Skip & Trey Young along with Paula and Kimberly are caring and assisting the family. 850-926-5919 Familyfhc.com

I am deeply saddened to hear about the passing of your granddaughter. Please accept my heartfelt condolences during this difficult time. Although I did not have the pleasure of knowing her personally, I can only imagine the light and joy she brought to your family. My thoughts are with you and your loved ones as you navigate this profound loss.

“ I never met Kyla. But I'm only about a year older than her. The things I've heard about her have touched my heart and I feel completely heartbroken for this girl and her family. The moment I heard she passed I started sobbing and I didn't even know her. I can only imagine how her family and friends feel with her passing. Kyla was so young and taken too soon. My friend Christian died a few years ago and I feel so much grief for him and for Kyla. I hope this family can find peace and love in these times. And to anyone reading this please don't take life for granted. Please live your life to its fullest and just be yourself. Kyla didn't deserve this and neither did her family and friends. I'm sure there will be people who will be angry with god at why this happened. But take what the enemy meant for evil and turn it for good. Kyla was a heavily devoted Christian and she wouldn't want you to take what the enemy meant for evil and turn it into a hatred. Use this experience to learn and mourn her even those who didn't know her can learn from this and grieve the person she was. Never take a moment for granted and live life the best you can. Because god takes what the enemy meant for evil and he turns it for good 🍀

“ I never had the chance to meet Kyla but know some of the family and my heart is breaking for you all. From what I've heard Kyla lived a God filled life and was unashamed to share God's love and Saving Grace with anyone she meet. Such a beautiful legacy for such a young soul. I know she's in God's loving embrace tonight. I will continue to pray for the family as they heal. Much love to you all. ❤️🙏
