“ Butch was a great no nonsense guy! I knew him since I was a kid when I would ride the bus home with Scott and Doug everyday of my 8th grade year at Wakulla Middle School. Butch also worked with us as a Corrections Assistant at the Wakulla Sheriffs office for a couple years. He always stopped by my office and we had several laughs and stories about Doug, Scott and I. Prayers to All the family.

“ I remember when Butch first came to Aaron Guard station as a Green Beret in the early 70's, we met him at the old Myra Jean's and later My sister Karen and I had a double date. He was stationed at Fort Bragg, NC. That just got everything started before long we had Doug. Those were some wonderful years. He played football for the Ohio State Buckeye's. We were so young, God bless all of your hearts, our prayers are with you.
