“ Linda was one of those people that truly touched my life. I was barely 20 when I met her at the Department of Labor. She showed me how important it was to work hard so you can be proud of your work. We were lunch buddies for years....we had some great conversations during those lunches. We lost touch over time, as often happens, but I have continued to think about Linda. Now that I am the "seasoned" employee I try to do for others as she did for me. Rest easy my friend. <3
