“ I had the pleasure of working with Linda in the 90s. She was someone I admired and just fun to be around. I also got to see Linda when she was living in the same ALF as my Dad. I'm glad I got to hug her and comfort her during that time. She always spoke of her son, Nick, whom she was proud of and loved very much. I think she also swapped her sweater for my Dad's blue boat shoes, which looked great on her.

“ Linda was a smart, funny and talented lady. We met over 40 years ago at FSU. We passed the CPA exam together and we both ended up working at the State Comptroller's Office. I have many fond memories from our friendship.
