Lori meant the world to Jaime and me. She was always there when we needed her. She prayed with me many times in the office. Heaven gained a beautiful angel.

*To Lories Family,
I learned of Lories passing a couple of months ago. We worked together at CIMG in Quincy. She was so full of life and let you know that Jesus was her best friend. If anything she would want us to know that Jesus is our best friend, to always lean on him and not our own understandings. That's what I think of Lorie and her smile.

“ Lorie was a dear friend who had a heart of gold to make sure all others were O.K. From outreach groups, homeless @ holidays, the ill during Covid, her kindness & big caring heart was heartfelt by so, so many! She truly had way more friends than she ever knew or realized! Some things still don't seem real. 🥹💔🙏

“ She was a very sweet person and she will be missed . God bless her family. Neil and me were on of her patients. She was very professional and a caring person can't believe to here the bad news. But she was a godly person and showed that to anyone she came in contact with. Everyone loved her.

I will always remember how caring and professional she was. She always listened to my worries. And helped even with prayer. My last time seeing and taking with her was when she done my school physical. She will be greatly missed.
