“ I was honored to know Marian Corley as a friend and colleague, as we were both School Psychologists in Riverside, California. Marian also served on the bargaining unit for our school district. Marian was very well liked and respected by those who knew her. When Marian retired she and her husband, Dan Corley, a retired Navy pilot, sold their home and bought a 53 ft sailboat. Marian, Dan and their daughter, Dana sailed around the world, and enjoyed many years of adventures at sea. They later continued their adventures on land, residing in Florida. Marian had a true partnership with her love mate, Dan. She is truly missed. Rita Senn-Sikorski
