

Matthew Brannigan McKinney

March 31, 1993 - March 5, 2016

Matthew McKinney passed away in his sleep on March 5th, 2016, just shy of his 23rd birthday. He was an inspiration to all, a music scene maker, a solid soul and friend till the end.

Matt was born on March 31, 1993. He left us on March 5, 2016. He will be remembered forever.

The definition of Matthew is “a child of God”, that was surely Matt.

He is survived by his parents Scott McKinney and Penny McKinney, his brothers Flint McKinney, Colt McKinney and Zach McKinney, his “Pop” Floyd Matthews and Loretta Matthews.

I always, from the bottom of my Soul, believed he would fall into something that worked for him. I truly believed this. The outstanding showing of GENUINE friends is proof positive that his dreams could be accomplished if his body would have just allowed. Love you ALL so much for seeing what I saw in him. - Penny Lane McKinney

“ I remember the first time I met Matt was at Syd's one Friday night about 8 years ago when Floyd was sitting in with Keith Renfro and Roadhouse. He climbed up on a bar stool and was 'holding court' as my daddy would have called it... his humor and infectious smile drew me in and I always looked forward to seeing him whenever I was at any of the music scenes. He certainly had a way of stealing your heart. My deepest condolences to your family. Matt will be greatly missed. May the God of your understanding wrap his arms tightly around your family and bring comfort to you all. Much love, Jacquie Wingate, "SereNole"
