

Maudie Swagart

April 4, 1946 - February 29, 2024

Maudie Merle Swagart

Born April 4, 1946 – Passed February 29, 2024

Merle Swagart passed away suddenly at the age of 77 on February 29, 2024, in Tallahassee, Florida surrounded by family. She was born on April 04, 1946, in Colquitt County GA, to the late Burton and Eunice Cochran. Merle was preceded by her husband C.J. Norman of 27 years and her second husband Gary F. Swagart of 20 years, her unborn son Johnny Norman, grandchildren James E. Surber Jr, Alicia Norman, C.J. Norman, and twins Zack, and Bret Coupal.

She is survived by her siblings John Cochran, Ann Ross, and Earl Cochran, as well as her six children, Angela Norman, Bobbie Bailey (and husband Alyn), Brenda Holley (and husband Kenny), David Norman (and wife Mishele), Lisa Langston (and husband Randall), and Mary Coupal (and husband Phil).

Additionally, she leaves behind many grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Despite the many roles she embraced throughout her life, her most cherished title was that of Memaw.

A vibrant and dynamic woman whose zest for life was as spicy as her personality. As a mother, wife, grandmother, and great-grandmother, she infused every moment with her unique charm and energy.

Beyond her familial roles, Merle embraced a multitude of professions, from truck driver to florist, wedding coordinator to painter, and even restaurant and business owner. She also was a courier for Pony Express and had a love for adventure, traveling, and gambling. Her green thumb extended to gardening, where she cultivated beauty and serenity amidst her many adventures. Her adventurous spirit and entrepreneurial drive were matched only by her warmth and creativity.

Known for her spunky personality, Merle lit up any room she entered with her bold presence.

Her friendships, especially with her beloved cousins, were as lively and flavorful as her favorite

Dr. Pepper.

Though she has left this world, the memories of Merle will forever be seasoned with the joy and vibrancy she brought to all who knew her. May she rest in peace, her spicy spirit living on in the hearts of those she touched.
